This petition is being submitted to revive an unintentionally abandoned international application for patent, No. PCT/IL2005/000208, designating the US, due to an unintentional delay in filing the US national stage application. The 30-month deadline for filing the US national stage from the above referenced international application for patent was August 18, 2006.

Applicants are concurrently and separately filing the US national stage application, along with a copy of this Petition.

Applicants respectfully submit that the entire delay in filing of the national stage application of the above referenced international application for patent, from the time of the deadline for filing the national stage application until the filing of this paper and the filing of the national stage application (herewith) was unintentional, and petition to the Commissioner under 37 CFR § 1.137(b) to revive the international application and accept the US national stage application.

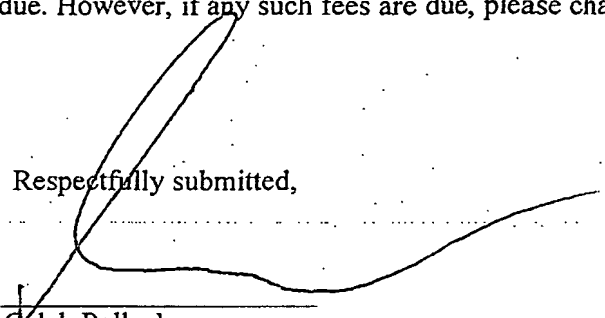

In conjunction with this petition, Applicant is submitting fees associated with this petition. In particular, it is believed that such fees include the $750.00 small entity petition fee set forth in 37 CFR §1.17(m). The national stage application fees are being submitted separately.
